Content 2. The City of Lodi is located in the heart of scenic south-central Wisconsin and provides a gateway to Lake Wisconsin. Situated in a beautiful valley among gently rolling hills, the City boasts relaxed and active green spaces created by its diverse assortment of parks. The serene Spring Creek, a class two trout stream, meanders through Lodi's downtown and throughout several of the parks.

Content 3. Visit the City's local businesses, unique shops, eateries, and other amenities while taking in the historic buildings that line Main Street. The walkable downtown provides access to many options to dine, shop, or rest.

Content 4. Visiting Lodi is not complete without feeding the ducks along Spring Creek. Stop at Spring Creek Park to gather some food for the ducks and enjoy the natural beauty of Lodi. Visit Veteran's Park, which was also the location of Lodi's former millpond, and revel in the peaceful flow of Spring Creek. Follow the meandering creek to two of Lodi's largest parks, Goeres Park and Habermann Park. Hike from the Lodi marsh to Gibraltar Rock and enjoy the splendor of the rolling hills of Lodi valley.
